FOCO ENGLISH
MY LIFE

Personal English for real A1-A2 life: home, family, work, routines, people, places, transport, events and goals

Learn to speak about your real world
21 practical units with models, questions, vocabulary, speaking and writing

How to Personalise the Material

Some examples use details already connected to your learning goals and professional context. Family, age, private address, and exact home details are intentionally left open. Replace model details only with true information that you are comfortable using.

1. Read the model aloud twice.
2. Underline the parts that are true for you.
3. Replace the remaining details with true information.
4. Answer the five key questions in complete sentences.
5. Record the speaking mission.
6. Write the task and correct it.
7. Repeat after 1, 3, 7 and 14 days.

Personal Information Builder

Full name: _____

City and country: _____

Occupation and department: _____

Main work responsibilities: _____

Family details you choose to share: _____

Interests and hobbies: _____

Rooms and objects in your home: _____

Places you visit regularly: _____

English learning goal: _____

Six-month personal goal: _____

Introducing Myself

Language focus: identity, origin, work and goals

1. Model Text

Hello! My name is Bedi João. I am from Angola, and I live in Luanda. I work in Human Resources, where I support training activities. I organise training sessions, manage schedules and communicate with participants. I am learning English because I want to speak with confidence and develop my professional skills. In my free time, I enjoy reading, studying digital tools and working on personal projects. It is nice to meet you.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	introduce myself	My example: _____
2	full name	My example: _____
3	live	My example: _____
4	work in	My example: _____
5	responsible for	My example: _____
6	training session	My example: _____
7	participant	My example: _____
8	professional skill	My example: _____
9	confidence	My example: _____
10	personal project	My example: _____

Unit 1 Practice | Introducing Myself

3. Essential Questions

1. What is your full name?

Answer: _____

2. Where are you from?

Answer: _____

3. Where do you live?

Answer: _____

4. What do you do?

Answer: _____

5. Why are you learning English?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at a class What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at work What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at an event What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Introduce yourself for two minutes without reading.

6. Writing Mission

Write 80 words about your identity, work, interests and English goal.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Daily Routine

Language focus: times, habits and sequence

1. Model Text

On weekdays, I wake up early and prepare for work. I usually check my plan before I leave home. I travel to work and start my professional tasks in the morning. During the day, I answer messages, organise information and follow training activities. After work, I rest for a short time. In the evening, I study English, practise Excel or work on a personal project. I try to sleep at a regular time because rest is important.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	weekday	My example: _____
2	wake up	My example: _____
3	prepare	My example: _____
4	leave home	My example: _____
5	during the day	My example: _____
6	answer messages	My example: _____
7	after work	My example: _____
8	rest	My example: _____
9	regular time	My example: _____
10	sleep	My example: _____

Unit 2 Practice | My Daily Routine

3. Essential Questions

1. What time do you wake up?

Answer: _____

2. What do you do first at work?

Answer: _____

3. How often do you study English?

Answer: _____

4. What do you do after work?

Answer: _____

5. What time do you go to bed?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at home What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
on the way to work What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at the office What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Describe your weekday from morning to night.

6. Writing Mission

Write your real routine using usually, often, sometimes and never.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Job and Responsibilities

Language focus: occupation and workplace duties

1. Model Text

I work in the Human Resources department. My work includes training coordination and administrative activities. I communicate with colleagues, trainers and participants. I prepare schedules, attendance lists and supporting documents. I also follow pending actions and update information. Some days are busy, especially when a training session is about to start. I like organised work because clear information helps people complete their tasks.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	department	My example: _____
2	responsibility	My example: _____
3	coordinate	My example: _____
4	trainer	My example: _____
5	attendance list	My example: _____
6	supporting document	My example: _____
7	pending action	My example: _____
8	update	My example: _____
9	busy	My example: _____
10	organised	My example: _____

Unit 3 Practice | My Job and Responsibilities

3. Essential Questions

1. Which department do you work in?

Answer: _____

2. What are your main responsibilities?

Answer: _____

3. Who do you communicate with?

Answer: _____

4. Which documents do you prepare?

Answer: _____

5. What makes a workday busy?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at your desk What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in a meeting room What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
during a training session What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Give a two-minute description of your job.

6. Writing Mission

Write a professional profile for a new colleague.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Interests and Free Time

Language focus: likes, preferences and hobbies

1. Model Text

In my free time, I like activities that help me learn and relax. I enjoy reading books and studying English on my phone. I am interested in Excel, Power BI and Python because digital skills can improve my work. I also enjoy watching series or anime and listening to useful audio content. Sometimes I plan a new application or organise my personal goals. I prefer activities that combine learning, creativity and practical results.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	free time	My example: _____
2	enjoy	My example: _____
3	be interested in	My example: _____
4	digital skill	My example: _____
5	improve	My example: _____
6	audio content	My example: _____
7	plan	My example: _____
8	creativity	My example: _____
9	practical	My example: _____
10	prefer	My example: _____

Unit 4 Practice | My Interests and Free Time

3. Essential Questions

1. What do you enjoy doing?

Answer: _____

2. What do you study on your phone?

Answer: _____

3. Which digital tools interest you?

Answer: _____

4. What do you watch?

Answer: _____

5. Why do you prefer these activities?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at home What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
on your phone What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at the weekend What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Talk about five interests and explain why you like them.

6. Writing Mission

Write about your ideal free evening.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Family

Language focus: family members and relationships

1. Model Text

My family is an important part of my life. We have different routines and responsibilities, but we try to support one another. At home, people may prepare meals, organise the rooms, go to work or study. On special days, the family can meet, talk and share food. To personalise this text, add the people who are part of your family, where they live, what they do and one thing you appreciate about each person.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	family member	My example: _____
2	parent	My example: _____
3	brother	My example: _____
4	sister	My example: _____
5	relative	My example: _____
6	live with	My example: _____
7	support	My example: _____
8	share	My example: _____
9	special day	My example: _____
10	appreciate	My example: _____

Unit 5 Practice | My Family

3. Essential Questions

1. Who is in your family?

Answer: _____

2. Who do you live with?

Answer: _____

3. Where do your relatives live?

Answer: _____

4. What do family members do?

Answer: _____

5. When does your family meet?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at home What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at a family meal What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
on a family visit What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Describe three family members. Do not invent details.

6. Writing Mission

Complete a 100-word family profile with real information.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Home

Language focus: rooms, furniture and there is/are

1. Model Text

I live in a home in Luanda. My home has spaces for sleeping, cooking, eating and relaxing. There is a living room, and there may be a sofa, chairs, a television and a table. The kitchen contains the items used to prepare meals. The bedrooms contain beds, clothes and personal objects. Use the empty spaces in this unit to describe only what truly exists in your home.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	living room	My example: _____
2	bedroom	My example: _____
3	kitchen	My example: _____
4	bathroom	My example: _____
5	furniture	My example: _____
6	sofa	My example: _____
7	wardrobe	My example: _____
8	object	My example: _____
9	comfortable	My example: _____
10	space	My example: _____

Unit 6 Practice | My Home

3. Essential Questions

1. How many rooms are there?

Answer: _____

2. What is in the living room?

Answer: _____

3. Where do you study?

Answer: _____

4. Which room do you use most?

Answer: _____

5. What would you like to improve?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at the entrance What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in the living room What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in the kitchen What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Give a guided tour of your home.

6. Writing Mission

Describe your home with there is, there are and prepositions.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Bedroom

Language focus: personal objects and locations

1. Model Text

My bedroom is a personal space. There is a bed, and there may be a wardrobe, a chair, a small table or shelves. I keep clothes and personal items in organised places. My phone is often near the bed, but I can put it away when I need to concentrate. If I study in the bedroom, I prepare a clear space and keep the materials I need nearby.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	bed	My example: _____
2	wardrobe	My example: _____
3	shelf	My example: _____
4	pillow	My example: _____
5	blanket	My example: _____
6	near	My example: _____
7	beside	My example: _____
8	under	My example: _____
9	keep	My example: _____
10	put away	My example: _____

Unit 7 Practice | My Bedroom

3. Essential Questions

1. What is beside your bed?

Answer: _____

2. Where do you keep your clothes?

Answer: _____

3. Do you study in your bedroom?

Answer: _____

4. Which objects do you use every day?

Answer: _____

5. Is the room usually organised?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

beside the bed What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
inside the wardrobe What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
on a shelf What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Describe ten objects and their positions.

6. Writing Mission

Draw a simple room plan and describe it in English.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Things Around Me at Work

Language focus: office objects and locations

1. Model Text

At work, I use objects that help me organise information and communicate. There is a computer on the desk, and there may be a printer near the work area. Documents can be inside folders or cabinets. In a training room, there are chairs, tables, a projector and an attendance list. Clear labels and organised storage make it easier to find what people need.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	computer	My example: _____
2	desk	My example: _____
3	printer	My example: _____
4	folder	My example: _____
5	cabinet	My example: _____
6	projector	My example: _____
7	chair	My example: _____
8	label	My example: _____
9	storage	My example: _____
10	find	My example: _____

Unit 8 Practice | Things Around Me at Work

3. Essential Questions

1. What is on your desk?

Answer: _____

2. Where is the printer?

Answer: _____

3. What is inside the cabinet?

Answer: _____

4. Which objects are in a training room?

Answer: _____

5. What do you use most?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at your desk What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in the cabinet What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in the training room What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Describe your work area as if helping a new colleague.

6. Writing Mission

Write inventory notes for fifteen objects.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

In the Classroom

Language focus: classroom language and instructions

1. Model Text

In an English class, I listen to the teacher, read examples and practise with other learners. I can ask a question when I do not understand. Useful phrases include: Could you repeat that, please? What does this word mean? How do you spell it? and Can you speak more slowly? I need to participate actively, not only read silently. Speaking, writing and correction are all part of the lesson.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	teacher	My example: _____
2	learner	My example: _____
3	example	My example: _____
4	meaning	My example: _____
5	spell	My example: _____
6	repeat	My example: _____
7	slowly	My example: _____
8	participate	My example: _____
9	correct	My example: _____
10	understand	My example: _____

Unit 9 Practice | In the Classroom

3. Essential Questions

1. What do you do in class?

Answer: _____

2. How do you request repetition?

Answer: _____

3. How do you ask about meaning?

Answer: _____

4. What do you say when you understand?

Answer: _____

5. Why is participation important?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at the beginning of class What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
during an exercise What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
after the lesson What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Role-play a learner asking for help five times.

6. Writing Mission

Write ten useful classroom expressions.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Describing People

Language focus: appearance and personality

1. Model Text

When I describe a person, I can talk about appearance and personality. For appearance, I can mention height, hair, glasses and clothing. For personality, I can use words such as friendly, quiet, organised, patient or helpful. I should describe only what I know and avoid negative or disrespectful labels. A useful structure is: The person is friendly and organised. The person has short hair and wears glasses.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	appearance	My example: _____
2	personality	My example: _____
3	tall	My example: _____
4	short hair	My example: _____
5	wear glasses	My example: _____
6	friendly	My example: _____
7	quiet	My example: _____
8	organised	My example: _____
9	patient	My example: _____
10	helpful	My example: _____

Unit 10 Practice | Describing People

3. Essential Questions

1. What does the person look like?

Answer: _____

2. What is the person like?

Answer: _____

3. What is the person wearing?

Answer: _____

4. Which qualities do you appreciate?

Answer: _____

5. How do you describe a colleague respectfully?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

in a photograph What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at work What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in a classroom What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Describe two familiar people respectfully.

6. Writing Mission

Write one appearance paragraph and one personality paragraph.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Taking a Taxi

Language focus: destination, fare and journey

1. Model Text

When I take a taxi, I greet the driver and give a clear destination. I can provide an exact address or a well-known landmark. I can ask how long the journey will take and how much the fare is. During the journey, I can request a route or ask the driver to stop near an entrance. At the end, I confirm the amount and thank the driver.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	taxi	My example: _____
2	driver	My example: _____
3	destination	My example: _____
4	exact address	My example: _____
5	landmark	My example: _____
6	journey	My example: _____
7	traffic	My example: _____
8	fare	My example: _____
9	route	My example: _____
10	entrance	My example: _____

Unit 11 Practice | Taking a Taxi

3. Essential Questions

1. Where would you like to go?

Answer: _____

2. Do you have the exact address?

Answer: _____

3. How long will it take?

Answer: _____

4. How much is the fare?

Answer: _____

5. Could you stop here, please?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

before entering What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
during the journey What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at the destination What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Complete a taxi journey from greeting to payment.

6. Writing Mission

Write a taxi dialogue using a real destination but no private address.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Going to Church or a Community Event

Language focus: plans, time and respectful participation

1. Model Text

When I go to a church service or a community event, I prepare in advance. I check the starting time, choose appropriate clothes and decide how to travel. I may go with relatives, friends or members of the community. At the location, I greet people politely, find a place to sit and follow the programme. After the event, I can speak to familiar people and return home.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	service	My example: _____
2	community event	My example: _____
3	start time	My example: _____
4	appropriate	My example: _____
5	relative	My example: _____
6	greet	My example: _____
7	politely	My example: _____
8	programme	My example: _____
9	sit	My example: _____
10	return home	My example: _____

Unit 12 Practice | Going to Church or a Community Event

3. Essential Questions

1. What time does the event start?

Answer: _____

2. Who are you going with?

Answer: _____

3. How are you travelling?

Answer: _____

4. What do you do when you arrive?

Answer: _____

5. What happens after the event?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

before the event What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at the location What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
after the event What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Describe the complete plan for attending an event.

6. Writing Mission

Write a respectful event plan with time, transport and actions.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Going to a Party

Language focus: invitations, clothes and social conversation

1. Model Text

A party usually begins with an invitation and a plan. I confirm the date, time and location. I choose what to wear and decide whether to take a gift or food. At the party, I greet the host, speak to people and accept or refuse food politely. I can ask simple questions about work, family, music or the event. Before leaving, I thank the host.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	party	My example: _____
2	invitation	My example: _____
3	host	My example: _____
4	guest	My example: _____
5	gift	My example: _____
6	wear	My example: _____
7	arrive	My example: _____
8	accept	My example: _____
9	refuse	My example: _____
10	thank	My example: _____

Unit 13 Practice | Going to a Party

3. Essential Questions

1. When is the party?

Answer: _____

2. Where is it?

Answer: _____

3. What are you going to wear?

Answer: _____

4. What can you say to a new guest?

Answer: _____

5. How do you thank the host?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

before the party What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
during the party What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
before leaving What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Role-play arriving, making small talk and leaving.

6. Writing Mission

Write a message accepting or refusing an invitation.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

At the Street, Market and Shop

Language focus: public places, prices and safety language

1. Model Text

In the street or market, I need practical language for locations, products, quantities and prices. I can ask where an item is, how much it costs and whether another size or quantity is available. I can confirm numbers when the place is noisy. I keep personal information private and remain aware of my belongings. Clear questions help me complete the purchase efficiently.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	street	My example: _____
2	market	My example: _____
3	product	My example: _____
4	quantity	My example: _____
5	price	My example: _____
6	available	My example: _____
7	size	My example: _____
8	noisy	My example: _____
9	belongings	My example: _____
10	purchase	My example: _____

Unit 14 Practice | At the Street, Market and Shop

3. Essential Questions

1. Where can I find this?

Answer: _____

2. How much does it cost?

Answer: _____

3. Do you have another size?

Answer: _____

4. Did you say fifteen or fifty?

Answer: _____

5. Can I have a receipt?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

on the street What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at a market stall What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at the payment desk What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Buy three items and clarify one number.

6. Writing Mission

Write a shopping list and a market conversation.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Personal Story

Language focus: past, present and future identity

1. Model Text

My personal story connects where I come from, what I do now and what I want to achieve. I can describe important stages without giving unnecessary private details. I can explain how my interests have changed, which skills I have developed and why my current goals matter. A clear personal story has a beginning, a present situation and a realistic next step.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	background	My example: _____
2	stage	My example: _____
3	develop	My example: _____
4	achievement	My example: _____
5	challenge	My example: _____
6	current	My example: _____
7	goal	My example: _____
8	next step	My example: _____
9	experience	My example: _____
10	identity	My example: _____

Unit 15 Practice | My Personal Story

3. Essential Questions

1. Where did you grow up?

Answer: _____

2. What have you learned from work?

Answer: _____

3. Which skills have you developed?

Answer: _____

4. What challenge are you working on?

Answer: _____

5. What is your next step?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

in an interview What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at a professional event What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in a personal reflection What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Tell your personal story in three minutes.

6. Writing Mission

Write 150 words connecting past, present and future.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

A Detailed Workday

Language focus: priorities, interruptions and results

1. Model Text

A detailed workday is more than a list of routine actions. I can explain priorities, interruptions, decisions and results. For example, I may be preparing a training activity when a colleague requests urgent information. I decide what must be completed first, communicate any delay and return to the planned task. At the end of the day, I review completed actions and pending items.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	priority	My example: _____
2	interruption	My example: _____
3	urgent	My example: _____
4	complete	My example: _____
5	communicate	My example: _____
6	delay	My example: _____
7	planned task	My example: _____
8	pending	My example: _____
9	review	My example: _____
10	result	My example: _____

Unit 16 Practice | A Detailed Workday

3. Essential Questions

1. What was your main priority?

Answer: _____

2. What interrupted the plan?

Answer: _____

3. How did you respond?

Answer: _____

4. What remained pending?

Answer: _____

5. What will you do next?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at the start of the day What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
during an interruption What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at the final review What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Explain one busy day with when and while.

6. Writing Mission

Write a workday report with completed and pending tasks.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Professional Profile and Career Goals

Language focus: experience, strengths and development

1. Model Text

My professional profile explains my current role, responsibilities, experience and development goals. I can say that I work in Human Resources and support training management. I can provide evidence by describing a real task, such as organising participants, schedules or documentation. I can also explain that I am developing English, advanced Excel and Power BI skills to strengthen my future opportunities.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	professional profile	My example: _____
2	current role	My example: _____
3	evidence	My example: _____
4	coordinate	My example: _____
5	documentation	My example: _____
6	strength	My example: _____
7	develop	My example: _____
8	advanced skill	My example: _____
9	opportunity	My example: _____
10	career goal	My example: _____

Unit 17 Practice | My Professional Profile and Career Goals

3. Essential Questions

1. What experience do you have?

Answer: _____

2. What are your strengths?

Answer: _____

3. Can you give an example?

Answer: _____

4. Which skills are you developing?

Answer: _____

5. What is your career goal?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

in an interview What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
during networking What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in a presentation What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Give a three-minute professional profile with one example.

6. Writing Mission

Write a professional biography for a CV or interview.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Describing My Home and Neighbourhood

Language focus: detail, comparison and preferences

1. Model Text

At A2, I can describe my home and neighbourhood with more detail. I can explain not only what exists but also how each space is used. I can compare two rooms, describe what is convenient or inconvenient and suggest an improvement. I can also explain which services are nearby and how the location affects my routine.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	neighbourhood	My example: _____
2	nearby service	My example: _____
3	convenient	My example: _____
4	inconvenient	My example: _____
5	spacious	My example: _____
6	crowded	My example: _____
7	quiet	My example: _____
8	compare	My example: _____
9	improvement	My example: _____
10	affect	My example: _____

Unit 18 Practice | Describing My Home and Neighbourhood

3. Essential Questions

1. What is your neighbourhood like?

Answer: _____

2. Which services are nearby?

Answer: _____

3. Which room is more comfortable?

Answer: _____

4. What would you improve?

Answer: _____

5. How does the location affect your routine?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

inside the home What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
around the building What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
in the neighbourhood What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Describe and compare two spaces for three minutes.

6. Writing Mission

Write 150 words about your real home and neighbourhood.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Social Situations and Small Talk

Language focus: follow-up questions and natural interaction

1. Model Text

Small talk helps people begin and continue a social conversation. At A2, I can answer a question and add a detail, then ask a follow-up question. I can talk about work, study, weekends, travel, books and plans. I should avoid asking for sensitive information too quickly. Natural interaction depends on listening, reacting and giving the other person space to speak.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	small talk	My example: _____
2	follow-up question	My example: _____
3	react	My example: _____
4	detail	My example: _____
5	sensitive	My example: _____
6	weekend	My example: _____
7	recommendation	My example: _____
8	shared interest	My example: _____
9	continue	My example: _____
10	interaction	My example: _____

Unit 19 Practice | Social Situations and Small Talk

3. Essential Questions

1. How have you been?

Answer: _____

2. What have you been working on?

Answer: _____

3. How was your weekend?

Answer: _____

4. What do you recommend?

Answer: _____

5. What are you planning next?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at a party What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
before a meeting What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
after an event What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Maintain a three-minute social conversation.

6. Writing Mission

Write a conversation that moves through three topics naturally.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Moving Around the City

Language focus: problems, alternatives and clarification

1. Model Text

Moving around a city may require more than basic directions. I can explain that a route is blocked, ask for an alternative, compare transport options and confirm a landmark. If I miss a stop or a driver does not understand the destination, I can clarify calmly. I can also explain a delay and update another person about my arrival time.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	route	My example: _____
2	blocked	My example: _____
3	alternative	My example: _____
4	transport option	My example: _____
5	landmark	My example: _____
6	miss a stop	My example: _____
7	clarify	My example: _____
8	delay	My example: _____
9	arrival time	My example: _____
10	update	My example: _____

Unit 20 Practice | Moving Around the City

3. Essential Questions

1. Is there an alternative route?

Answer: _____

2. Which option is faster?

Answer: _____

3. Where should I get off?

Answer: _____

4. Could you confirm the landmark?

Answer: _____

5. What time will you arrive?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

at a taxi rank What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
on public transport What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
after a route change What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Solve a transport problem and notify someone of the delay.

6. Writing Mission

Write a message explaining a delay and new arrival time.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Events, Celebrations and Visits

Language focus: arrangements, changes and reflection

1. Model Text

For an event, celebration or visit, I can discuss invitations, arrangements and expectations. I can explain what I am going to take, who will attend and how responsibilities are divided. If plans change, I can apologise, suggest an alternative and confirm the new arrangement. After the event, I can describe what happened and what I enjoyed most.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	celebration	My example: _____
2	arrangement	My example: _____
3	expectation	My example: _____
4	attend	My example: _____
5	responsibility	My example: _____
6	change of plan	My example: _____
7	apologise	My example: _____
8	alternative	My example: _____
9	confirm	My example: _____
10	reflection	My example: _____

Unit 21 Practice | Events, Celebrations and Visits

3. Essential Questions

1. Who is going to attend?

Answer: _____

2. What should we take?

Answer: _____

3. Who is responsible for each task?

Answer: _____

4. What changed?

Answer: _____

5. What did you enjoy most?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

during planning What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
when plans change What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
after the event What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Plan an event, change one detail and describe the result.

6. Writing Mission

Write an invitation, change message and post-event reflection.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

My Learning Life

Language focus: study methods, progress and self-correction

1. Model Text

My learning life includes goals, routines, evidence and review. I can explain what I have studied, what still causes difficulty and which method helps most. I can compare an old recording with a recent one, identify repeated errors and choose a measurable next target. Progress does not mean speaking without mistakes. It means communicating more independently and correcting more effectively.

2. Key Vocabulary

1	learning method	My example: _____
2	evidence	My example: _____
3	recent	My example: _____
4	repeated error	My example: _____
5	measurable	My example: _____
6	target	My example: _____
7	independently	My example: _____
8	self-correct	My example: _____
9	effective	My example: _____
10	progress	My example: _____

Unit 22 Practice | My Learning Life

3. Essential Questions

1. What have you studied recently?

Answer: _____

2. What is still difficult?

Answer: _____

3. Which method helps you most?

Answer: _____

4. How do you measure progress?

Answer: _____

5. What will you improve next?

Answer: _____

4. Three Real Spaces

during self-study What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
after recording What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?
at the monthly review What can you see? What do you do? Who is there? What language do you need?

5. Speaking Mission

Give a progress report with evidence and a next goal.

6. Writing Mission

Write a monthly English-learning reflection.

7. Expansion Ladder

Build your answer in five stages: 1) one fact; 2) add place or time; 3) add a responsibility or activity; 4) add a reason with because; 5) add another detail and one follow-up question.

8. Self-check

☐ I used true information. ☐ I answered all questions. ☐ I used at least six new expressions. ☐ I spoke without reading. ☐ I wrote and revised my text.

Situation Bank: Be Ready Anywhere

1. Meeting a new person
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

2. Welcoming someone at work
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

3. Asking for repetition
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

4. Explaining your job
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

5. Describing your desk
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

6. Describing your bedroom
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

7. Giving a home tour
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

8. Talking about family
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

9. Making weekend plans
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

10. Going to a community event
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

11. Arriving at a party
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

12. Taking a taxi
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

13. Buying something at a market
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

14. Asking for directions
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

15. Joining a class
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

16. Leaving a phone message
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

17. Explaining a delay
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

18. Talking about a past event
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

19. Discussing a future goal
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

20. Making small talk
Opening phrase: _____ Key information: _____
Follow-up question: _____ Closing phrase: _____

Final Personal Speaking Test

Record one continuous presentation. Speak about: who you are, where you live, your family, your home, your room, your work, your routine, your interests, places you visit, a past experience, and your future goals.

A1 target: 4-5 minutes with simple connected sentences.

A2 target: 8-10 minutes with past, present, future, reasons, comparisons and follow-up questions.

My strongest topic: _____

My weakest topic: _____

Expressions I need to review: _____

My next recording date: _____