FOCO ENGLISH
REAL CONVERSATIONS

49 diálogos essenciais para conversar com segurança nos níveis A1 e A2

Ler • Ouvir • Memorizar • Substituir • Representar • Falar sem apoio

Como dominar os diálogos

Não tentes memorizar tudo de uma vez. Aprende cada conversa em camadas. Primeiro compreende a situação. Depois lê em voz alta, destaca as expressões-chave, substitui os detalhes e representa as duas personagens. O objetivo final é conseguir adaptar a linguagem a uma situação nova.

1. Read for meaning: identifica quem fala, onde está e qual é o objetivo.
2. Listen: usa a leitura em voz alta do dispositivo e ouve sem repetir.
3. Chunking: aprende grupos de palavras, não palavras isoladas.
4. Shadowing: repete com o modelo, copiando ritmo e entoação.
5. Role-play: representa primeiro uma personagem e depois a outra.
6. Substitution drill: troca nomes, datas, preços, locais e problemas.
7. Closed-book test: conversa sem olhar para o diálogo.
8. Spaced review: revê depois de 1, 3, 7 e 14 dias.

Mapa das situações

1. [A1] Meeting Someone for the First Time
2. [A1] Giving Personal Details
3. [A1] Spelling a Name on the Phone
4. [A1] Talking About Family
5. [A1] Describing a Daily Routine
6. [A1] First Day at Work
7. [A1] Confirming a Meeting Time
8. [A1] Ordering Breakfast
9. [A1] Lunch at a Restaurant
10. [A1] Buying Clothes
11. [A1] Asking for Directions
12. [A1] Taking a Taxi
13. [A1] Buying a Bus Ticket
14. [A1] At a Hotel Reception
15. [A1] At the Bank
16. [A1] Making a Medical Appointment
17. [A1] Talking About Hobbies
18. [A1] Making Weekend Plans
19. [A1] Talking About Weather
20. [A1] A Simple Phone Message
21. [A1] Returning an Item
22. [A2] Giving a Work Update
23. [A2] Changing a Meeting Time

24. [A2] Requesting a Document Politely
25. [A2] Explaining a Missed Deadline
26. [A2] Solving a Training Room Problem
27. [A2] Explaining a Process
28. [A2] Giving Constructive Feedback
29. [A2] A Simple Job Interview
30. [A2] Checking In at the Airport
31. [A2] Reporting Lost Luggage
32. [A2] Changing a Hotel Booking
33. [A2] Joining an Online Meeting
34. [A2] Expressing and Defending an Opinion
35. [A2] Apologising for Being Late
36. [A2] Giving Advice to a Friend
37. [A2] Handling a Customer Complaint
38. [A2] Comparing Two Courses
39. [A2] Discussing Career Goals
40. [A2] Describing a Past Experience
41. [A2] Planning a Trip
42. [A2] Solving a Phone Problem
43. [A2] Preparing a Simple Presentation
44. [A2] Writing and Discussing an Email
45. [A2] A Full A2 Social Conversation
46. [A2] Discussing a Health Routine
47. [A2] Negotiating Responsibilities
48. [A2] Asking for Clarification in Training
49. [A2] Making and Responding to a Suggestion

Dialogue 1 | Level A1

Meeting Someone for the First Time

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Bedi and Laura	Two people meet before an English class.	Introduce yourself, ask basic questions, and close the conversation politely.

1. Complete Conversation

Laura: Hello. Is this your first English class?

Bedi: Yes, it is. My name is Bedi. What is your name?

Laura: I am Laura. Nice to meet you.

Bedi: Nice to meet you too. Where are you from?

Laura: I am from Mozambique, but I live in Luanda. And you?

Bedi: I am from Angola. I live in Luanda too.

Laura: What do you do?

Bedi: I work in Human Resources. What about you?

Laura: I am an administrative assistant.

Bedi: That is interesting. The class is starting now.

Laura: Yes. Let us talk again after class.

Bedi: Of course. See you later.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Nice to meet you.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Where are you from?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	What do you do?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	What about you?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	See you later.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the names, countries, cities, and occupations.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Have the same conversation without reading.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 2 | Level A1

Giving Personal Details

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Receptionist and visitor	A visitor completes a registration at a professional event.	Give and confirm personal information accurately.

1. Complete Conversation

Receptionist: Good morning. May I have your full name, please?

Visitor: My full name is Bedi João.

Receptionist: How do you spell your surname?

Visitor: J-O-A-O.

Receptionist: Thank you. What is your nationality?

Visitor: I am Angolan.

Receptionist: Where do you live?

Visitor: I live in Luanda.

Receptionist: What is your phone number?

Visitor: It is nine-two-three, zero-zero-zero, zero-zero-zero.

Receptionist: And what is your email address?

Visitor: It is bedi dot joao at example dot com.

Receptionist: Please check the information before you sign.

Visitor: Everything is correct. Thank you.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	May I have...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	How do you spell...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	What is your nationality?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Please check...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Everything is correct.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Replace all personal information with your own details.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Complete the registration without looking at the model.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 3 | Level A1

Spelling a Name on the Phone

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Receptionist and caller	A telephone connection is unclear.	Spell a name, distinguish letters, and confirm an email address.

1. Complete Conversation

Receptionist: Good afternoon. Training department. How can I help?

Caller: I would like to register for the Excel course.

Receptionist: Certainly. What is your name?

Caller: Grace Van Dunem.

Receptionist: Could you spell your first name, please?

Caller: G-R-A-C-E.

Receptionist: Is the first letter G or J?

Caller: It is G, as in green.

Receptionist: Thank you. How do you spell your surname?

Caller: V-A-N, space, D-U-N-E-M.

Receptionist: Let me confirm your email address.

Caller: It is grace dot vandunem at example dot com.

Receptionist: Perfect. Your registration is complete.

Caller: Thank you for your help.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Could you spell that?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Is that G or J?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	G as in green.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Let me confirm...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Your registration is complete.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Spell your name, company, city, and email address.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Ask another person to spell five difficult words.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 4 | Level A1

Talking About Family

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two classmates	Two classmates discuss the people in a photograph.	Describe family relationships and basic personal details.

1. Complete Conversation

Marta: Is this your family photograph?

Paulo: Yes. These are my parents.

Marta: Who is the person next to your mother?

Paulo: That is my older sister, Ana.

Marta: Does she live with your family?

Paulo: No, she lives in Benguela with her husband.

Marta: Have you got any brothers?

Paulo: Yes, I have one younger brother. He is a student.

Marta: And who is the child in front of your father?

Paulo: That is my niece. She is six years old.

Marta: You have a big family.

Paulo: Yes, and we usually meet on Sundays.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	These are my parents.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Who is...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Have you got any...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	older brother	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	younger sister	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Replace the people and places with your own family information.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Describe a photograph for one minute.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 5 | Level A1

Describing a Daily Routine

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two colleagues	Colleagues compare their normal workdays.	Talk about routines, times, and frequency.

1. Complete Conversation

Sara: What time do you usually wake up?

Daniel: I wake up at six o’clock.

Sara: Do you have breakfast at home?

Daniel: Yes. Then I take the bus at seven.

Sara: What time do you start work?

Daniel: I start at eight and check my email first.

Sara: Do you have lunch at the office?

Daniel: Usually, but I sometimes eat at a restaurant.

Sara: What do you do after work?

Daniel: I go home, rest, and study English for thirty minutes.

Sara: Do you study every day?

Daniel: Almost every day. I never study very late.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	What time do you...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	I usually...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	I sometimes...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	I never...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	after work	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the times, transport, and activities.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Speak about your weekday from morning to night.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 6 | Level A1

First Day at Work

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
New employee and colleague	A new employee needs orientation.	Ask where things are and understand simple workplace instructions.

1. Complete Conversation

Colleague: Welcome to the team. I am Sofia.

New employee: Thank you. I am pleased to be here.

Colleague: Your desk is beside the window.

New employee: Where can I find the printer?

Colleague: It is next to the meeting room.

New employee: And where are the training files?

Colleague: They are in the blue cabinet.

New employee: What time is the team meeting?

Colleague: It is at ten o’clock in Room Three.

New employee: Do I need to bring anything?

Colleague: Bring your notebook and the induction form.

New employee: Thank you. Could you show me the room?

Colleague: Of course. Follow me.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Welcome to the team.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Where can I find...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Do I need to...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Could you show me...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Follow me.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the objects, room number, and meeting time.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Give a new colleague a tour of your workplace.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 7 | Level A1

Confirming a Meeting Time

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two colleagues	A meeting invitation contains important date and time details.	Ask for and confirm dates, times, and locations.

1. Complete Conversation

Ana: Are you available for the training meeting on Tuesday?

Carlos: Yes. What time does it start?

Ana: It starts at half past nine.

Carlos: Did you say nine thirty or eight thirty?

Ana: Nine thirty, in Meeting Room Two.

Carlos: How long is the meeting?

Ana: About one hour.

Carlos: Who is going to attend?

Ana: The trainer, the HR team, and the project manager.

Carlos: Do I need to prepare anything?

Ana: Please bring the attendance report.

Carlos: All right. Tuesday at nine thirty, Room Two.

Ana: Correct. I will send a reminder on Monday.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Are you available...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	What time does it start?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Did you say...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	How long...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	I will send a reminder.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the day, time, room, participants, and document.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Confirm a complete appointment by telephone.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 8 | Level A1

Ordering Breakfast

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Customer and server	A customer orders a simple breakfast.	Order food and drinks politely and check availability.

1. Complete Conversation

Server: Good morning. What would you like?

Customer: I would like tea and two pieces of toast, please.

Server: Would you like milk in your tea?

Customer: Yes, but no sugar, please.

Server: Would you like eggs?

Customer: Yes. One boiled egg, please.

Server: I am sorry, we do not have any eggs today.

Customer: That is okay. Do you have fruit?

Server: Yes. We have bananas and oranges.

Customer: I will have a banana. How much is everything?

Server: It is three thousand five hundred kwanzas.

Customer: Here you are.

Server: Thank you. Your breakfast will be ready soon.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I would like...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Would you like...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	We do not have any...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	I will have...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	How much is everything?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the drink, food, quantity, and price.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Order a complete breakfast without using Portuguese.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 9 | Level A1

Lunch at a Restaurant

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Customer and waiter	A customer orders lunch and asks for the bill.	Use a menu, ask about food, and pay.

1. Complete Conversation

Waiter: Good afternoon. Are you ready to order?

Customer: Yes. What is today’s special?

Waiter: Grilled fish with rice and vegetables.

Customer: Is the fish spicy?

Waiter: No, it is mild.

Customer: Good. I would like the fish, please.

Waiter: Would you like anything to drink?

Customer: A bottle of water, please.

Waiter: Certainly. Would you like dessert?

Customer: Not today, thank you.

Customer: Excuse me. Can I have the bill, please?

Waiter: Of course. Service is included.

Customer: Can I pay by card?

Waiter: Yes, you can.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Are you ready to order?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	What is today’s special?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Is it spicy?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Can I have the bill?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Can I pay by card?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the main course, drink, dessert, and payment method.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Perform the restaurant conversation in both roles.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 10 | Level A1

Buying Clothes

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Customer and shop assistant	A customer needs a shirt for an event.	Ask about colour, size, price, and fit.

1. Complete Conversation

Assistant: Hello. Can I help you?

Customer: Yes. I need a blue shirt for a work event.

Assistant: What size do you wear?

Customer: Medium, please.

Assistant: Here is a dark blue shirt in medium.

Customer: Can I try it on?

Assistant: Of course. The fitting room is over there.

Customer: The shirt is comfortable, but the sleeves are too long.

Assistant: Let me find a smaller size.

Customer: This one fits better. How much is it?

Assistant: It is twenty-two thousand kwanzas, with a ten percent discount.

Customer: Great. I will take it.

Assistant: Would you like a receipt?

Customer: Yes, please.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Can I help you?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	What size...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Can I try it on?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	It fits better.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	I will take it.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the item, colour, size, problem, price, and discount.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Buy two clothing items and compare them.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 11 | Level A1

Asking for Directions

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Visitor and local person	A visitor needs to find a pharmacy.	Ask for and follow simple directions.

1. Complete Conversation

Visitor: Excuse me. Is there a pharmacy near here?

Local person: Yes. There is one on Queen Street.

Visitor: How do I get there?

Local person: Go straight for two blocks.

Visitor: Two blocks. Then what?

Local person: Turn left at the bank and walk past the supermarket.

Visitor: Is the pharmacy on the left?

Local person: No, it is on the right, opposite the hotel.

Visitor: Is it far from here?

Local person: No. It is about five minutes on foot.

Visitor: Let me check: straight, left at the bank, then past the supermarket.

Local person: That is correct.

Visitor: Thank you very much.

Local person: You are welcome.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Is there a...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	How do I get there?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Go straight.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Turn left.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	opposite the hotel	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the destination, street, landmarks, and distance.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Give directions from your home to a nearby place.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 12 | Level A1

Taking a Taxi

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Passenger and driver	A passenger explains a destination and asks about the fare.	Give a destination, ask about time and price, and request a stop.

1. Complete Conversation

Driver: Good morning. Where would you like to go?

Passenger: To the city centre, near the National Bank, please.

Driver: Do you have the exact address?

Passenger: Yes. It is 25 Main Street.

Driver: There is heavy traffic this morning.

Passenger: How long will the journey take?

Driver: About thirty minutes.

Passenger: How much is the fare?

Driver: Approximately six thousand kwanzas.

Passenger: That is fine. Please use the main road.

Driver: Certainly. Is this the correct building?

Passenger: Yes. Please stop beside the entrance.

Driver: Here we are.

Passenger: Thank you. Keep the change.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Where would you like to go?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	exact address	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	How long...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	How much is the fare?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Please stop...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the destination, traffic condition, time, and fare.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Direct a taxi journey from start to finish.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 13 | Level A1

Buying a Bus Ticket

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Passenger and ticket clerk	A passenger needs a return ticket and timetable information.	Buy a ticket and ask about departure details.

1. Complete Conversation

Clerk: Good morning. Where are you travelling to?

Passenger: I would like a ticket to Benguela, please.

Clerk: One-way or return?

Passenger: Return, please.

Clerk: When would you like to travel?

Passenger: Tomorrow morning. What time is the first bus?

Clerk: It leaves at six thirty.

Passenger: What time does it arrive?

Clerk: At approximately two in the afternoon.

Passenger: How much is the return ticket?

Clerk: It is twenty-eight thousand kwanzas.

Passenger: Can I pay by card?

Clerk: Yes. Here is your ticket. Platform Four.

Passenger: Thank you.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	one-way or return	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	What time is the first bus?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	What time does it arrive?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	return ticket	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Platform Four	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the destination, date, times, price, and platform.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Buy a ticket and confirm every detail.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 14 | Level A1

At a Hotel Reception

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Guest and receptionist	A guest checks in and asks about hotel services.	Confirm a reservation, give identification, and ask practical questions.

1. Complete Conversation

Receptionist: Good evening. Welcome to the Plaza Hotel.

Guest: Good evening. I have a reservation under João.

Receptionist: May I see your identification, please?

Guest: Yes. Here is my passport.

Receptionist: Thank you. You have a single room for two nights.

Guest: That is correct. Is breakfast included?

Receptionist: Yes. Breakfast is from seven to ten.

Guest: What is the Wi-Fi password?

Receptionist: It is written on your key card.

Guest: Is there a taxi service in the morning?

Receptionist: Yes. We can book a taxi for you.

Guest: Please book one for six thirty.

Receptionist: Certainly. Your room is 305, on the third floor.

Guest: Thank you very much.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I have a reservation under...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	May I see...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Is breakfast included?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Could you book...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	on the third floor	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the guest name, room type, nights, taxi time, and room number.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Check in without reading and ask three extra questions.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 15 | Level A1

At the Bank

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Customer and bank clerk	A customer needs basic account information.	Explain a simple banking need and ask about requirements.

1. Complete Conversation

Clerk: Good morning. How can I help you?

Customer: I would like to open a bank account.

Clerk: Do you have identification and proof of address?

Customer: I have my identification, but what is proof of address?

Clerk: It is a document that shows where you live.

Customer: Can I use an electricity bill?

Clerk: Yes, if your name and address are on it.

Customer: Is there a minimum amount to open the account?

Clerk: Yes. The minimum deposit is ten thousand kwanzas.

Customer: How long does the process take?

Clerk: About thirty minutes if all documents are correct.

Customer: Thank you. I will return with the bill.

Clerk: You are welcome.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	How can I help?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	I would like to open...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	proof of address	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	minimum deposit	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	How long does it take?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the service, required document, amount, and duration.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Ask for information about a different bank service.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 16 | Level A1

Making a Medical Appointment

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Patient and receptionist	A patient calls a clinic for an appointment.	Describe a basic need and arrange a date and time.

1. Complete Conversation

Receptionist: Good morning. Central Clinic. How can I help?

Patient: I would like to make an appointment, please.

Receptionist: Is it a routine appointment or an urgent problem?

Patient: It is not urgent, but I have a cough and a sore throat.

Receptionist: How long have you had these symptoms?

Patient: For two days.

Receptionist: We have an appointment today at four or tomorrow at nine.

Patient: Tomorrow at nine is better.

Receptionist: May I have your full name and phone number?

Patient: Certainly. My name is Paulo Silva.

Receptionist: Please arrive fifteen minutes early.

Patient: Do I need to bring anything?

Receptionist: Bring your identification and any relevant information.

Patient: Thank you.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	make an appointment	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	urgent problem	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	How long...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	tomorrow at nine	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	arrive early	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the symptoms, duration, appointment time, and name.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Make an appointment and repeat the details.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 17 | Level A1

Talking About Hobbies

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two friends	Friends discuss free-time activities.	Ask about preferences and frequency.

1. Complete Conversation

Nina: What do you like doing in your free time?

Bedi: I enjoy reading and watching anime.

Nina: What kind of books do you read?

Bedi: I usually read personal development books.

Nina: How often do you read in English?

Bedi: Three or four times a week.

Nina: Do you play any sports?

Bedi: I sometimes play football, but I prefer walking.

Nina: I love music. Do you listen to podcasts?

Bedi: Yes. I listen to short English podcasts on my phone.

Nina: We can share recommendations.

Bedi: Good idea. Send me your favourite podcast.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	What do you like doing?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	What kind of...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	How often...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	I prefer...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Good idea.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the hobbies, frequency, and recommendations.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Keep the conversation going with five follow-up questions.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 18 | Level A1

Making Weekend Plans

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two friends	Friends arrange a simple activity.	Invite someone, accept or refuse, and confirm details.

1. Complete Conversation

Alex: Are you free on Saturday afternoon?

Marta: Yes. Why?

Alex: Would you like to visit the book fair?

Marta: I would love to. What time should we meet?

Alex: How about two o'clock?

Marta: I work until one thirty. Can we meet at three?

Alex: Yes. Let us meet at the main entrance.

Marta: How much is the ticket?

Alex: It is two thousand kwanzas.

Marta: Can my cousin come with us?

Alex: Of course. I can buy three tickets online.

Marta: Great. I will send you a message on Saturday morning.

Alex: Perfect. See you on Saturday.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Are you free...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Would you like to...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	How about...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Can we meet at...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	See you on...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the activity, date, time, meeting point, and ticket price.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Make a plan, then change one detail politely.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 19 | Level A1

Talking About Weather

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two colleagues	Colleagues make small talk and adjust a plan.	Describe the weather and make a simple decision.

1. Complete Conversation

Lina: It is very hot today.

Tom: Yes, and the forecast says it will rain later.

Lina: Really? I do not have an umbrella.

Tom: I have one in my car.

Lina: Are we still having lunch outside?

Tom: Maybe not. The sky is getting dark.

Lina: There is a café inside the building.

Tom: Good idea. It is cooler there.

Lina: What is the weather like tomorrow?

Tom: Sunny in the morning and windy in the afternoon.

Lina: Then we can walk tomorrow morning.

Tom: Perfect. Let us go before it gets too hot.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	It is hot.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	It will rain.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	What is the weather like?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Good idea.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	before it gets...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the weather, objects, activities, and decision.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Describe today’s conditions and plan an activity.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 20 | Level A1

A Simple Phone Message

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Caller and receptionist	A caller leaves a message for someone who is unavailable.	Ask for a person, leave contact details, and confirm a message.

1. Complete Conversation

Receptionist: Good morning. Human Resources department.

Caller: May I speak to Ms. Costa, please?

Receptionist: I am sorry, she is in a meeting.

Caller: Can I leave a message?

Receptionist: Of course. What is your name?

Caller: This is Paulo Mendes from Nova Training.

Receptionist: What is the message?

Caller: Please ask her to call me about Thursday’s workshop.

Receptionist: May I have your phone number?

Caller: Yes. It is 924 555 210.

Receptionist: Let me repeat that: 924 555 210.

Caller: That is correct.

Receptionist: I will give her the message.

Caller: Thank you. Goodbye.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	May I speak to...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Can I leave a message?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Please ask...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Let me repeat that.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	I will give the message.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the names, organisation, topic, date, and phone number.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Leave a complete message without reading.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 21 | Level A1

Returning an Item

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Customer and assistant	A customer returns a product with a simple problem.	Explain a problem, show proof of purchase, and request an exchange.

1. Complete Conversation

Assistant: Hello. How can I help?

Customer: I would like to return this charger.

Assistant: What is the problem with it?

Customer: It does not work with my phone.

Assistant: Do you have the receipt?

Customer: Yes. I bought it yesterday.

Assistant: Would you like a refund or an exchange?

Customer: An exchange, please.

Assistant: What model is your phone?

Customer: It is a Galaxy A-series phone.

Assistant: This charger is compatible with that model.

Customer: Can I test it before I leave?

Assistant: Certainly. Let us test it here.

Customer: It works. Thank you.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I would like to return...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	What is the problem?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Do you have the receipt?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	refund or exchange	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Can I test it?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the product, problem, purchase date, and solution.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Return an item and negotiate a suitable solution.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 22 | Level A2

Giving a Work Update

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Employee and manager	An employee reports progress, a delay, and next steps.	Give a structured update with completed work, current status, risk, and action.

1. Complete Conversation

Manager: Can you give me an update on the training plan?

Employee: Certainly. I have completed the participant list and confirmed the trainer.

Manager: What is still pending?

Employee: The venue confirmation and transport schedule are still pending.

Manager: Is there any risk to the planned date?

Employee: The venue is the main risk because we need confirmation by tomorrow.

Manager: What have you done about it?

Employee: I called the supplier this morning and sent a written follow-up.

Manager: What is your alternative if the venue is unavailable?

Employee: We can use the smaller internal room and divide the group into two sessions.

Manager: Good. When will you send the next update?

Employee: By three o’clock tomorrow, after I receive the supplier’s response.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I have completed...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	still pending	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	the main risk	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	written follow-up	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	alternative option	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the project, completed tasks, risk, solution, and deadline.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Deliver a sixty-second work update using four clear sections.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 23 | Level A2

Changing a Meeting Time

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two colleagues	A schedule conflict requires a meeting change.	Explain a conflict, propose alternatives, and confirm the new arrangement.

1. Complete Conversation

Sofia: I am calling about tomorrow’s project meeting.

Daniel: Is there a problem with the schedule?

Sofia: Yes. The director has requested another meeting at the same time.

Daniel: I see. Would eleven thirty work instead?

Sofia: I have a site visit at eleven. Could we move it to the afternoon?

Daniel: I am available between two and four.

Sofia: How about two thirty?

Daniel: That works for me. Can the trainer attend at that time?

Sofia: I will check and confirm within the next hour.

Daniel: Please update the calendar invitation if everyone agrees.

Sofia: Of course. The agenda and meeting link will remain the same.

Daniel: Perfect. Thank you for informing me early.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	schedule conflict	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Would ... work instead?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Could we move it...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	That works for me.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	remain the same	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the reason, alternatives, participants, and final time.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Negotiate a new time when the first two options fail.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 24 | Level A2

Requesting a Document Politely

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
HR colleague and department representative	A required document is missing before a deadline.	Make a clear professional request and explain purpose, deadline, and format.

1. Complete Conversation

HR: Good morning. I am following up on the attendance report for last week’s training.

Representative: I sent the participant names yesterday. Is something missing?

HR: We received the names, but we still need the signed attendance sheet.

Representative: I understand. Why is the signed copy required?

HR: It is necessary to validate participation before we issue certificates.

Representative: When do you need it?

HR: If possible, please send a scanned copy by midday today.

Representative: The original is with the site administrator. I can request it now.

HR: Thank you. A clear photograph is also acceptable if scanning is not available.

Representative: That helps. I will send the image first and the scan later.

HR: Perfect. Please include the training title and date in the email subject.

Representative: Understood. I will send it before twelve.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I am following up on...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	We still need...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	It is necessary to...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	If possible...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	also acceptable	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the document, reason, deadline, responsible person, and accepted format.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Make a polite request, then respond to a delay.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 25 | Level A2

Explaining a Missed Deadline

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Employee and supervisor	A report was not completed on time.	Take responsibility, explain facts, and propose a recovery plan.

1. Complete Conversation

Supervisor: The monthly report was due yesterday. What happened?

Employee: I am sorry. I did not complete it on time because two source files arrived late.

Supervisor: When did you know that the files would be delayed?

Employee: I realised it on Monday afternoon, but I should have informed you immediately.

Supervisor: What is the current status?

Employee: The data is now complete, and I have finished the first review.

Supervisor: When can you submit the final version?

Employee: By two o'clock today. I have blocked the morning to complete the checks.

Supervisor: How will you prevent this next month?

Employee: I will request the source files two days earlier and send a warning if anything is missing.

Supervisor: All right. Please send me a short update at midday.

Employee: I will. I apologise for not communicating earlier.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	was due	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	I should have informed...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	current status	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	final version	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	prevent this next time	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the task, cause, revised deadline, and prevention step.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Explain a delay without making excuses.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 26 | Level A2

Solving a Training Room Problem

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Coordinator and trainer	A room is unavailable shortly before a session.	Explain a problem, compare options, and agree on a practical solution.

1. Complete Conversation

Coordinator: We have a problem with the main training room.

Trainer: What happened?

Coordinator: There is a water leak, so the facilities team has closed the room.

Trainer: The participants will arrive in twenty minutes. What are our options?

Coordinator: We can use Room Five, but it only has sixteen seats.

Trainer: We are expecting twenty-two participants.

Coordinator: The larger conference room is available after ten thirty.

Trainer: Could we begin in Room Five with a group activity and move later?

Coordinator: Yes. I can bring six extra chairs and inform reception about the change.

Trainer: Good. I will start with an activity that does not require the projector.

Coordinator: I will update the signs and send a message to the participants.

Trainer: Excellent. Let us review the move during the first break.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	What are our options?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	We are expecting...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Could we begin...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	inform ... about the change	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	during the first break	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the problem, rooms, group size, equipment, and solution.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Resolve a new logistics problem with two alternatives.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 27 | Level A2

Explaining a Process

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Experienced colleague and new colleague	A colleague explains how to register a training request.	Give sequenced instructions and check understanding.

1. Complete Conversation

New colleague: Could you show me how to register a training request?

Experienced colleague: Of course. First, open the training portal and select New Request.

New colleague: What information do I enter first?

Experienced colleague: Add the employee’s details, the course title, and the business reason.

New colleague: Do I attach the manager’s approval now?

Experienced colleague: Yes. Without approval, the request cannot move to the next stage.

New colleague: What happens after I submit it?

Experienced colleague: HR reviews the request and checks the available budget.

New colleague: How can I follow the status?

Experienced colleague: Use the tracking number in the Requests section.

New colleague: And if the information is incomplete?

Experienced colleague: The system returns it with a comment. Always read the comment before editing.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	First...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	attach the approval	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	next stage	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	follow the status	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	information is incomplete	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the system, required fields, approval, and final step.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Explain a familiar workplace process in six clear steps.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 28 | Level A2

Giving Constructive Feedback

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Team leader and colleague	A colleague's report is clear but incomplete.	Give balanced, specific, respectful feedback.

1. Complete Conversation

Leader: Thank you for preparing the report. The layout is clear and easy to follow.

Colleague: Thank you. Is there anything I should improve?

Leader: Yes. The summary is strong, but the attendance section is incomplete.

Colleague: Which information is missing?

Leader: Five participants appear on the paper list but not in the digital total.

Colleague: I may have used the earlier version of the file.

Leader: That is possible. Please compare both lists before updating the total.

Colleague: Should I also check the certificate list?

Leader: Yes, because the same names may be missing there.

Colleague: I will correct both files this afternoon.

Leader: Good. For future reports, a short checklist could help prevent this.

Colleague: I agree. I will create one and share it with the team.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	The layout is clear.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	There is one area to improve.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Which information is missing?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Please compare...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	For future reports...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the work product, strength, problem, evidence, and improvement.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Give feedback that includes praise, evidence, impact, and action.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 29 | Level A2

A Simple Job Interview

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Recruiter and candidate	A candidate answers common interview questions.	Describe experience, strengths, a work example, and motivation.

1. Complete Conversation

Recruiter: Thank you for coming. Could you introduce yourself briefly?

Candidate: Certainly. I have experience in administration, logistics support, and customer service.

Recruiter: Why are you interested in this position?

Candidate: The role matches my organisational skills and gives me an opportunity to grow.

Recruiter: What would you say is one of your strengths?

Candidate: I am organised and I communicate clearly when priorities change.

Recruiter: Can you give me an example?

Candidate: In my previous role, several requests arrived at the same time. I prioritised the urgent ones and updated each customer.

Recruiter: What skill are you currently improving?

Candidate: I am improving my English and advanced Excel skills.

Recruiter: Do you have any questions for us?

Candidate: Yes. What training is available during the first three months?

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Could you introduce yourself briefly?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	The role matches...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	one of your strengths	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Can you give an example?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Do you have any questions?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the experience, position, strength, example, and development area.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Answer five interview questions without memorising full paragraphs.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 30 | Level A2

Checking In at the Airport

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Passenger and airline agent	A passenger checks baggage and confirms flight details.	Manage check-in, baggage, seat, and boarding information.

1. Complete Conversation

Agent: Good morning. May I see your passport and booking confirmation?

Passenger: Certainly. Here they are.

Agent: Are you checking any bags today?

Passenger: Yes, one suitcase and one small carry-on bag.

Agent: Please place the suitcase on the scale. It is two kilograms over the allowance.

Passenger: What are my options?

Agent: You can remove some items or pay the excess baggage fee.

Passenger: I will move two books to my carry-on bag.

Agent: That is fine now. Would you prefer a window or aisle seat?

Passenger: An aisle seat, please.

Agent: Boarding begins at seven ten at Gate Twelve.

Passenger: Has the departure time changed?

Agent: No. The flight is still scheduled for eight o’clock.

Passenger: Thank you for confirming.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	booking confirmation	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	checking any bags	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	over the allowance	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	excess baggage fee	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	boarding begins	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the baggage, weight, seat preference, gate, and times.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Complete check-in and solve a baggage problem.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 31 | Level A2

Reporting Lost Luggage

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Passenger and baggage agent	A suitcase does not arrive after a flight.	Describe luggage, provide evidence, and ask about delivery.

1. Complete Conversation

Passenger: Excuse me. My suitcase did not arrive on the carousel.

Agent: I am sorry to hear that. May I see your baggage tag?

Passenger: Yes. This is the tag from my boarding pass.

Agent: Can you describe the suitcase?

Passenger: It is medium-sized and black, with a red ribbon on the handle.

Agent: Did it have a name label?

Passenger: Yes. My name and phone number are inside a blue holder.

Agent: Where are you staying?

Passenger: At the Plaza Hotel until Friday.

Agent: We will create a report and give you a reference number.

Passenger: How can I check the status?

Agent: You can use the reference number online or call this desk.

Passenger: Will the suitcase be delivered to the hotel?

Agent: Yes, as soon as it is located.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	did not arrive	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	baggage tag	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Can you describe...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	reference number	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	check the status	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the item, colour, distinguishing feature, accommodation, and date.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Report missing luggage clearly and ask four follow-up questions.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 32 | Level A2

Changing a Hotel Booking

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Guest and reservations agent	A guest changes dates and room requirements.	Modify a reservation and understand price changes.

1. Complete Conversation

Agent: Reservations department. How may I assist you?

Guest: I need to change a booking under the name João.

Agent: Could you provide the confirmation number?

Guest: Yes. It is PLZ-4821.

Agent: You currently have a single room from Monday to Wednesday.

Guest: That is correct, but I now need to arrive on Sunday and leave on Thursday.

Agent: We have availability, but Sunday is at a higher rate.

Guest: What will the new total be?

Agent: The total will be one hundred and eighty thousand kwanzas, including breakfast.

Guest: Can I change to a double room as well?

Agent: A double room is available from Monday, not Sunday.

Guest: Then I will keep the single room.

Agent: I have updated the dates and sent a new confirmation email.

Guest: Thank you. I will check it now.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	change a booking	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	confirmation number	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	have availability	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	higher rate	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	updated the dates	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the guest, dates, room type, rate, and included service.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Negotiate a booking change when the first option is unavailable.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 33 | Level A2

Joining an Online Meeting

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Chairperson and participant	A participant has connection and audio problems.	Enter a meeting, explain technical issues, and confirm understanding.

1. Complete Conversation

Chairperson: Welcome, everyone. Can you hear and see the shared screen?

Participant: I can see the screen, but the audio is breaking up.

Chairperson: Thank you for telling me. I will reconnect my microphone.

Participant: The sound is clearer now.

Chairperson: Good. We are reviewing the training schedule for next month.

Participant: Could you zoom in on the second table?

Chairperson: Of course. Is it readable now?

Participant: Yes. I have one question about the dates.

Chairperson: Please go ahead.

Participant: Does the blue row show confirmed sessions or proposed sessions?

Chairperson: It shows confirmed sessions. The grey rows are still proposed.

Participant: Understood. Could you share the file after the meeting?

Chairperson: Yes. I will send the file and action points this afternoon.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	audio is breaking up	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	reconnect	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Could you zoom in?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Please go ahead.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	action points	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the technical issue, document, question, colour coding, and follow-up.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Participate in a meeting and interrupt politely for clarification.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 34 | Level A2

Expressing and Defending an Opinion

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two colleagues	Colleagues compare online and classroom training.	Give an opinion, support it, acknowledge another view, and conclude.

1. Complete Conversation

Nadia: Do you think online training is better than classroom training?

Pedro: In my view, it is more flexible, especially for people at different sites.

Nadia: That is true, but classroom training makes interaction easier.

Pedro: I agree that face-to-face discussion can be stronger.

Nadia: Another issue is the internet connection. Some participants miss parts of the session.

Pedro: Yes, although online sessions can be recorded for later review.

Nadia: Which format would you choose for practical training?

Pedro: I would choose classroom training because participants need direct support.

Nadia: And for a short information session?

Pedro: Online would probably be more efficient.

Nadia: So the best format depends on the objective.

Pedro: Exactly. We should choose the method after analysing the audience and activity.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	In my view...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	That is true, but...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	I agree that...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	although	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	depends on the objective	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the two options, advantages, disadvantages, and conclusion.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Defend an opinion while showing respect for the other view.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 35 | Level A2

Apologising for Being Late

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Employee and meeting organiser	An employee arrives late and needs to explain and recover.	Apologise, give a concise reason, and request the key information.

1. Complete Conversation

Employee: I apologise for arriving late.

Organiser: We started fifteen minutes ago. Is everything all right?

Employee: Yes. There was an accident on the main road, and the traffic stopped completely.

Organiser: Thank you for letting me know. We are discussing the revised schedule.

Employee: I am sorry I did not send a message earlier.

Organiser: Please take a seat. I will share the notes after the meeting.

Employee: Have you already decided the new training date?

Organiser: Not yet. We are comparing the 18th and the 20th.

Employee: May I review the constraints before the decision?

Organiser: Certainly. We are now discussing trainer availability.

Employee: Thank you. I will listen and add any relevant information.

Organiser: Good. We will summarise all decisions at the end.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I apologise for...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Is everything all right?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	I am sorry I did not...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Have you already decided...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	relevant information	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the delay, reason, missed topic, and recovery action.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Apologise briefly, then rejoin a discussion professionally.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 36 | Level A2

Giving Advice to a Friend

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two friends	A friend struggles to study English consistently.	Ask about a problem and give practical, balanced advice.

1. Complete Conversation

Friend A: I want to improve my English, but I never follow my study plan.

Friend B: What usually stops you?

Friend A: I plan long sessions after work, but I am often too tired.

Friend B: You should try shorter sessions in the morning.

Friend A: How short? Ten minutes does not seem enough.

Friend B: Start with twenty minutes and divide the time between listening, speaking, and review.

Friend A: Should I study every day?

Friend B: Five consistent days may be better than one very long session.

Friend A: I also forget new vocabulary quickly.

Friend B: Review the words after one day, three days, and one week.

Friend A: That sounds more realistic.

Friend B: Keep a simple record and adjust the plan after two weeks.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	What usually stops you?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	You should...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Start with...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	may be better than...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	That sounds realistic.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the learning problem, schedule, advice, and review plan.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Give three suggestions and explain why each one may help.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 37 | Level A2

Handling a Customer Complaint

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Customer and service representative	A customer reports an incorrect document and previous delay.	Listen, clarify, acknowledge inconvenience, and offer a solution.

1. Complete Conversation

Customer: I received the certificate, but the date is incorrect.

Representative: I am sorry about that. Could you tell me which date appears on it?

Customer: It says 12 June, but the training took place on 21 June.

Representative: Thank you. Let me check the attendance record.

Customer: I reported this yesterday, but I have not received an update.

Representative: I understand the inconvenience. I can see your earlier request here.

Customer: When will the corrected certificate be ready?

Representative: I will correct the record now and ask for approval before noon.

Customer: Can you send the digital copy today?

Representative: Yes. I will email it by two o'clock and call you to confirm receipt.

Customer: That solution works for me.

Representative: Again, I apologise for the error and the delay.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I am sorry about that.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Let me check...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	I understand the inconvenience.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	When will...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	confirm receipt	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the product or document, error, previous contact, solution, and deadline.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Resolve a complaint while keeping the conversation calm and specific.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 38 | Level A2

Comparing Two Courses

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Learner and adviser	A learner chooses between Excel and Power BI courses.	Compare options using goals, schedules, price, and current skills.

1. Complete Conversation

Learner: I am trying to choose between the advanced Excel course and the Power BI course.

Adviser: What is your main learning goal?

Learner: I want to build better reports and dashboards for work.

Adviser: How confident are you with Excel now?

Learner: I already use formulas and pivot tables, but I need more practice with automation.

Adviser: The Excel course is shorter and cheaper. The Power BI course is longer but focuses more on dashboards.

Learner: Which course has more practical projects?

Adviser: Power BI includes three projects, while Excel includes one final case study.

Learner: The Power BI schedule is less convenient, but the content matches my goal better.

Adviser: Then you need to decide whether the stronger match justifies the time and cost.

Learner: I think it does. I will choose Power BI and continue practising Excel independently.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	choose between	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	main learning goal	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	more practical	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	while	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	justifies the time and cost	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the courses, current ability, schedule, cost, and decision.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Compare two real options and justify your choice.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 39 | Level A2

Discussing Career Goals

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Employee and mentor	An employee creates a six-month development plan.	Describe a goal, current gap, actions, evidence, and review point.

1. Complete Conversation

Mentor: What would you like to achieve in the next six months?

Employee: I want to communicate more confidently in English at work.

Mentor: Which situations are most difficult for you now?

Employee: Speaking in meetings and answering unexpected questions.

Mentor: What actions are you planning?

Employee: I will practise speaking four times a week and complete two mock meetings each month.

Mentor: How will you measure progress?

Employee: I will record one task every Sunday and compare the recordings monthly.

Mentor: Do you need support from anyone?

Employee: A colleague can practise work-related dialogues with me on Fridays.

Mentor: When will you review the complete plan?

Employee: At the end of each month, and I will adjust the targets if necessary.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	What would you like to achieve?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Which situations...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	What actions...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	measure progress	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	adjust the targets	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the goal, difficulties, activities, support, and review date.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Present a six-month development plan in two minutes.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 40 | Level A2

Describing a Past Experience

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two colleagues	A colleague tells the story of a successful event.	Narrate an event with sequence, background, challenge, and result.

1. Complete Conversation

Colleague A: How did the training event go last Friday?

Colleague B: It went well, although the morning started with a problem.

Colleague A: What happened?

Colleague B: While we were preparing the room, the electricity went off.

Colleague A: What did you do?

Colleague B: First, we moved the group to a room with natural light. Then the trainer began with a discussion.

Colleague A: How long was the power off?

Colleague B: About forty minutes. It returned before the first practical exercise.

Colleague A: Did the session finish on time?

Colleague B: Yes. We shortened the final break and completed every activity.

Colleague A: What did you learn from the experience?

Colleague B: Always prepare an alternative that does not depend on technology.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	although	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	While we were...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	First... Then...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	finish on time	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	What did you learn?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the event, interruption, response, timing, and lesson.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Tell a past experience using while, when, first, then, and finally.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 41 | Level A2

Planning a Trip

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two travellers	Two people plan transport, accommodation, budget, and activities.	Discuss preferences, constraints, and shared decisions.

1. Complete Conversation

Traveller A: Shall we plan the Benguela trip for the long weekend?

Traveller B: Yes. I would prefer to travel early on Friday.

Traveller A: The morning bus is cheaper, but the flight only takes one hour.

Traveller B: What is our total transport budget?

Traveller A: About one hundred and twenty thousand kwanzas for both of us.

Traveller B: Then the bus is more realistic. Have you checked accommodation?

Traveller A: I found a small hotel near the beach with breakfast included.

Traveller B: Is it possible to cancel without a fee?

Traveller A: Yes, until two days before arrival.

Traveller B: Good. What activities should we book in advance?

Traveller A: Only the Saturday tour. We can decide the rest after we arrive.

Traveller B: Perfect. Book the hotel, and I will buy the bus tickets.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	I would prefer...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	total budget	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	more realistic	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	cancel without a fee	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	book in advance	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the destination, transport, budget, hotel, and activities.

Write your replacements:

1. _____ 2. _____

3. _____ 4. _____

5. _____ 6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Plan a trip and divide the responsibilities.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 42 | Level A2

Solving a Phone Problem

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
User and support agent	A phone cannot connect to mobile data after an update.	Describe technical symptoms, follow steps, and confirm resolution.

1. Complete Conversation

Agent: Technical support. How can I help?

User: My phone has not connected to mobile data since yesterday’s update.

Agent: Can you make calls and connect to Wi-Fi?

User: Yes. Calls and Wi-Fi work normally.

Agent: Please open Settings and check whether Mobile Data is switched on.

User: It is on, but there is an exclamation mark beside the network name.

Agent: Turn on airplane mode for ten seconds, then turn it off.

User: I have done that, but the problem remains.

Agent: Let us reset the network settings. This will remove saved Wi-Fi passwords.

User: That is fine. What should I do next?

Agent: Restart the phone and test a webpage without Wi-Fi.

User: It is working now. Thank you.

Agent: Excellent. I will record the solution on your support case.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	since yesterday	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	work normally	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	switched on	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	the problem remains	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	restart the phone	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the device, symptoms, tests, warning, and solution.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Explain a technical problem without using vague words like thing.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 43 | Level A2

Preparing a Simple Presentation

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Presenter and colleague	A presenter rehearses a three-part work presentation.	Organise an opening, main points, transitions, and closing.

1. Complete Conversation

Presenter: Can you listen to the opening of my presentation?

Colleague: Of course. What is the topic?

Presenter: I am presenting our training results for the first half of the year.

Colleague: How are you going to structure it?

Presenter: First, I will show participation. Next, I will discuss completion rates. Finally, I will present recommendations.

Colleague: That structure is clear. What is your main message?

Presenter: Participation increased, but completion fell in two locations.

Colleague: Make that contrast clear before showing the details.

Presenter: Good point. Should I explain every chart?

Colleague: Only explain what the audience needs to understand the decision.

Presenter: I will finish with three actions and invite questions.

Colleague: Excellent. Practise the transitions so you do not need to read them.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	The topic is...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	First... Next... Finally...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	main message	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Good point.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	invite questions	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the topic, data, three sections, contrast, and recommendation.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Deliver a two-minute presentation with no slides.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 44 | Level A2

Writing and Discussing an Email

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Colleague and reviewer	A colleague reviews a professional request email before sending it.	Clarify purpose, action, deadline, and tone.

1. Complete Conversation

Writer: Could you review this email before I send it?

Reviewer: Yes. What do you want the recipient to do?

Writer: I need the department to confirm six participant names.

Reviewer: The purpose is clear, but the required action appears only in the last paragraph.

Writer: Should I move it to the first paragraph?

Reviewer: Yes. State the request after the greeting, then explain the reason.

Writer: Is the deadline clear enough?

Reviewer: Write the exact date and time instead of saying as soon as possible.

Writer: I will write, Please confirm the names by Tuesday at midday.

Reviewer: Good. Add a short list of the six names to make checking easier.

Writer: Should I copy the manager?

Reviewer: Only if the manager needs visibility or action.

Writer: Understood. I will revise the email and read it once more before sending.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	What do you want the recipient to do?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	required action	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	exact date and time	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	make checking easier	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	needs visibility	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the email purpose, recipient, requested action, reason, and deadline.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Explain a professional email aloud before writing it.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 45 | Level A2

A Full A2 Social Conversation

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two acquaintances	Two people continue a conversation across work, recent events, plans, and opinions.	Maintain a short social exchange with follow-up questions.

1. Complete Conversation

Rita: It is good to see you again. How have you been?

Bedi: I have been busy, but things are going well. How about you?

Rita: I recently started a new course.

Bedi: That sounds interesting. What are you studying?

Rita: Project management. We have already completed the first module.

Bedi: How is it different from your previous course?

Rita: It is more practical, and we work on a real project.

Bedi: Are you planning to use it at work?

Rita: Yes. I am going to propose a small process improvement next month.

Bedi: What problem will the project address?

Rita: Delays in document approval. If we simplify the steps, the team will save time.

Bedi: That is a useful goal. Let me know how the proposal goes.

Rita: I will. Perhaps we can have coffee next week and discuss it.

Bedi: I would like that. Send me a message when you are free.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	How have you been?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	That sounds interesting.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	How is it different?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	If we simplify...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	Let me know...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the course, comparison, project, future action, and invitation.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Continue one conversation for three minutes using follow-up questions.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 46 | Level A2

Discussing a Health Routine

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two colleagues	Colleagues discuss stress and healthy habits without giving clinical advice.	Describe habits, challenges, and realistic changes.

1. Complete Conversation

A: You mentioned that your mornings have been difficult recently.

B: Yes. I have been sleeping late and skipping breakfast.

A: Has that affected your workday?

B: I find it harder to concentrate before lunch.

A: What change are you considering?

B: I am going to prepare breakfast the night before and switch off my phone earlier.

A: That sounds manageable. How will you know if it helps?

B: I will track my sleep and concentration for two weeks.

A: Are you changing everything at once?

B: No. I will start with those two habits and review the results.

A: Good plan. If the problem continues, seek appropriate professional guidance.

B: I agree. I want the plan to be realistic and responsible.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	recently	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Has that affected...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	What change...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	track the result	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	appropriate guidance	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the habit, impact, action, period, and support.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Discuss a healthy routine without making medical claims.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 47 | Level A2

Negotiating Responsibilities

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two team members	Team members divide work for an event.	Clarify ownership, deadlines, dependencies, and updates.

1. Complete Conversation

A: We need to divide the remaining tasks for Friday’s event.

B: I can manage participant communication and the attendance list.

A: Good. I will confirm the trainer, room, and equipment.

B: Who will arrange transport for the site participants?

A: Logistics will do it, but they need the final names by Wednesday.

B: Then I must receive department confirmations by Tuesday afternoon.

A: What will you do if one department does not reply?

B: I will send a reminder at midday and call the contact person before four.

A: Please copy me only if the delay puts transport at risk.

B: Understood. When should we review the complete checklist?

A: Thursday at ten. By then, every item should have an owner and status.

B: I will update the tracker before the review.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	divide the tasks	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Who will arrange...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	final names	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	puts ... at risk	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	owner and status	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the event, tasks, dependencies, escalation, and review time.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Negotiate responsibilities until every task has an owner.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 48 | Level A2

Asking for Clarification in Training

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Participant and trainer	A participant does not understand part of an explanation.	Interrupt politely, identify the unclear point, and check understanding.

1. Complete Conversation

Participant: Excuse me. Could I ask a question about the second step?

Trainer: Of course. Which part is unclear?

Participant: I understand how to create the request, but I do not understand who approves it.

Trainer: The direct manager approves it first, and then HR reviews the budget.

Participant: Does HR approve every request?

Trainer: HR validates each request, but final approval depends on the budget and priority.

Participant: Could you give an example of a rejected request?

Trainer: Yes. A request may be rejected if the business reason is incomplete.

Participant: So the employee should explain how the training supports the job. Is that correct?

Trainer: Exactly. That explanation helps the reviewers make a decision.

Participant: Thank you. The process is clearer now.

Trainer: Good. Let us apply it to the case study.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	Could I ask...?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	Which part is unclear?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	Could you give an example?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	So ... Is that correct?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	The process is clearer.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the topic, unclear step, approval, example, and confirmation.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?
2. Which information does the first speaker need?
3. What problem, choice, or change appears?
4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?
5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Ask three clarification questions during a simulated lesson.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.

Dialogue 49 | Level A2

Making and Responding to a Suggestion

Roles	Situation	Communication goal
Two project colleagues	Colleagues improve a recurring process.	Suggest, question, modify, and agree on an improvement.

1. Complete Conversation

A: I think we should send training reminders two days earlier.

B: What problem would that solve?

A: Several participants say they receive logistical details too late.

B: That is true, but some room details are not final two days before.

A: We could send the confirmed information first and update only the room later.

B: That would reduce the amount of last-minute information.

A: We could also include a short checklist: time, location, transport, and materials.

B: Good idea. Who would maintain the template?

A: I can create the first version, and the team can review it on Friday.

B: Let us test it with next week’s course before using it everywhere.

A: Agreed. We will compare the number of participant questions.

B: If the questions decrease, we can adopt the template permanently.

2. High-Value Chunks to Memorise

1	We should...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
2	What problem would that solve?	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
3	We could...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
4	Let us test it.	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.
5	If ... we can...	Meaning and use: identify what this expression does in the conversation, then create one new example.

3. Substitution Drill

Change the process, problem, suggestion, pilot, and success measure.

Write your replacements:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. Comprehension and Conversation Questions

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

2. Which information does the first speaker need?

3. What problem, choice, or change appears?

4. Which expression is the most useful for you? Why?

5. How would you respond differently in your own situation?

5. Fluency Challenge

Propose an improvement and respond to two objections.

Success checklist: ☐ I understood the full situation. ☐ I can use the five key chunks. ☐ I changed the details. ☐ I played both roles. ☐ I completed the conversation without reading.